Sailing Season Is Here!

Welcome to the 2025 Annapolis Spring Sailboat Show, where sailors and would-be sailors may climb aboard a fantastic line-up of sailboats and meet with representatives of sailing schools, sailing clubs, charter companies, and more. In addition to exploring the boats, here you may shop for gear and equipment, enjoy live entertainment, and attend seminars. Outside the show, we invite you to visit the wide variety of restaurants, bars, and shops, many of which are within easy walking distance.

New show layout.

You are sure to notice right away that this spring we've adjusted the show layout, moving farther into Ego Alley. This move is to accommodate the exciting Annapolis City Dock Project, a transformative redevelopment initiative designed to address flooding, enhance public spaces, and boost economic vitality in the historic district and along the waterfront. We think you'll love our new design.

There is no better place than the Annapolis Spring Sailboat Show to ring in the sailing season. Have questions?
